

Moshe Brand received his Ph.D. degree in mechanical and biomedical engineering from Tel- Aviv University, Israel in 2005.

Since 2006, he has been at the department of Mechanical and Mechatronics Engineering at Ariel University, Israel.

In 2013 he established the Ariel Biomechanics Center

Since 2015 he is the Vice President, ISMBE - Israel Society for Medical and Biological Engineering

His research interests focus on biomechanics, vascular stent implants, vascular remodeling ,human movements and rehabilitation.