

Zohar Gendler – Managing Partner and CEO, NGT<sup>3</sup>

Managing Partner & CEO of NGT<sup>3</sup> which is an early-stage investor structured as a venture capital fund and a holder the Israeli government franchise to operate technological incubator and invest in life-science technologies.

Former CEO and director of Beta-O2 Technologies for a period of 8 years (a biomedical company which developed proprietary implantable bio-artificial pancreas), brought the company to one of the world leaders positioning in the area.

Served as CEO of the Technion Entrepreneurial Incubator for a period of 11 years. Led the establishment and investment in more than 50 companies, such as Prolor Biotech (sold to Opko, NYSE: OPK, for $480M), Mazor Robotics (NASDAQ: MZOR, TASE: MZOR.TA, www.mazorrobotics.com), ReWalk (NASDAQ: RWLK, www.rewalk.com), Corindus (NASDAQ: CVRS, www.corindus.com), Regentis (www.regentis.co.il), Medic Vision (<http://www.medicvision.com/usa/home>), UltraSpect (<http://ultraspect.com/>) and many others. Gained a wide range of experience in identifying new technologies and in establishing, directing, and creating value for technology-based start-up companies.

Served as a member of the Technion's Patent Committee. (1998 – 2006).

Earned his M.Sc. in material engineering, a B.Sc. in physics, and a certificate in business management, all from the Technion, Israel Institute of Technology.